Art Unit: 1796

1. Claims 22-24, 28-40, 42, 43, and 47-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicants have amended the claims to replace the term, “polythiourethane/urea”, with the term, “poly(thio)urethane/urea”; therefore, in view of the use of parentheses to denote an optional embodiment, the instant claims no longer mandate the presence of a thiourethane/urea linkage. The examiner has reviewed the specification and finds no support for embodiments wherein the thiourethane/urea linkage is optional; in every instance, the term, “polythiourethane/urea”, is recited within the specification, and the fact that isocyanates or isothiocyanates and hydroxyl or thiol groups are recited as reactants in no way establishes that applicants were in possession of polymers lacking thiourethane/urea linkages at the time of invention.

2. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
